SECTION F : COMPREHENSION (5 X 2 marks)

Read the passage below and answer the questions 17 to 21 that follow.

Grandmother always thought that I play too much and that I did not work hard. So one day, she made me paint a picture of her garden.

I became bored of painting and went to explore the garden next door. There were a lot of overgrown bushes and weeds. There, I met Mr Lewis who invited me for tea. He was a talented artist before he lost his eyesight. I found one of his artwork on the floor. It was unbelievably good!

When I went home, I had Mr Lewis' painting with me. I showed it to Grandmother. She thought that it was my painting. She immediately entered it in a competition.

I had an unpleasant feeling that I would win a prize. It would mean that I had to tell everyone the truth. I hoped Mother would understand that I lied to Grandmother because I did not want to let her down. That was the first time that I wished that I would not win anything.

Section K : Comprehension Open-ended (5 X 2 marks)

For each question from 38 to 42, read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

One evening, Helen and Janet were queuing up to buy tickets for the circus. In front of them was a lady and her four children.

The children were excited about the circus. They had never been to the circus before. When it was their turn to buy the tickets, the person at the counter told them how much the five tickets cost. However, the children's mother did not have enough money. She became quiet. She was thinking of how to break the sad news to her children.

Janet took out a fifty-dollar note and dropped it on the ground. She picked up the note, tapped the woman on the shoulder and said, "Excuse me, this fell-out of your pocket."

The woman looked straight into Janet's eyes. With tears in her eyes, she thanked Janet. With that, Helen and Janet went home. Although they did not watch the circus, they were very happy. The fifty-dollar note had actually been a blessing to the family of five.

Write your answers in complete sentences.

38. What were Helen and Janet queuing up for?

39. Why were the children excited about the circus?

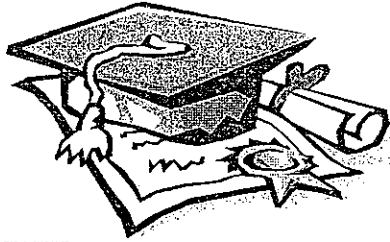

40. In paragraph two, what was the "sad news"?

41. Which sentence in the passage shows that the woman was grateful to Janet?

42. Why were both Janet and Helen happy even though they did not watch the circus?
