Jane was going to celebrate her birthday and Peter was excited for her. He remembered what Jane had always wanted. He decided to get a doll for his sister with his savings from his piggy bank. That Friday afternoon, he skipped happily to a shopping centre down the street. He wanted to give his sister a birthday surprise the next day. The moment he bought the doll, he ran home as it was getting late.

The special day arrived. Jane invited all her friends and neighbours to her party. Jane's mother baked a strawberry cake for her. There were ten candles on it. Jane and Peter helped to prepare some sandwiches. Their father scooped vanilla ice cream into cups and served them with some chocolate sauce. The children enjoyed the food.

Everyone at the party had lots of fun playing outdoor games. After that, they sang the birthday song. It was a wonderful birthday party.
