Section H (8m)Comprehension Open-ended

Read the passage below and answer questions 39 to 43. Your answers must be based on the passage.

"Grandma, Grandpa, this is going to be awesome!" Josh exclaimed, his eyes twinkling with excitement as they stepped foot on Pulau Ubin. The air was filled with a sense of adventure, and Josh felt splendid.

Hand in hand, they walked into the lush greenery, amazed by the island's natural beauty. "Wow, this place is like a paradise!" Josh gasped, taking in the sights and sounds around him. The leaves rustled in the gentle breeze, and colourful birds danced in the trees. 5

Suddenly, a cheeky monkey swung down from the branches and grabbed Josh's food! "Oh no, my snacks!" Josh cried out in trepidation, watching helplessly as the animal darted away with his treats. 10

Grandma and Grandpa just chuckled and said, pointing to his bag, "I've plenty more in here."

As Josh and his grandparents continued their adventure, they came across a wild boar blocking their path. Josh's heart raced, but Grandma and Grandpa held their grandson's hand tightly. "Let's slowly back away. It means no harm," Grandpa said. Eventually, the creature did trot away. 15

Just before lunchtime, Josh suddenly realised that his backpack was missing! "What do we do now?" he asked, pacing up and down.

Grandma patted his shoulder and suggested, "Let's retrace our steps and see if we can find it. We'll work together and solve this problem, just like we did with the monkey and the boar." 20

With determination and teamwork, the trio scoured the jungle until they found the backpack on a bench. Josh had forgotten to carry it with him when they left that resting spot earlier. Relieved, he hugged his grandparents appreciatively. 25
