Section D: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 19 to 25.

The night wind howled. Tom slipped past the night watchman who was distracted by a cat and hid among wheat sacks aboard a ship. As he was struggling with hardships, he wanted to go to a different place for a fresh start. The ship sailed at dawn. For six days, he hid without being detected.

Finally, a sailor shouted, "Corn sacks to be unloaded at Cranberry Port!" Tom knew 5 he would be sent home if he was discovered. With sailors fast approaching, he emptied one labelled 'Cranberry' into the sea before climbing inside. He did not look exactly like the other corn sacks, but time was running out. He had to think fast. Securing the sack with a rubber band, he held his breath, hoping he would not be found out.

As the sailors unloaded, one scratched his head and said, "Weirdest corn sack I've 10 seen!"

Another grabbed Tom's elbow and laughed. "Another bag of corn!" he announced. With all his might, he hoisted the sack of 'corn' and hurled it into the cargo net.

Later, Tom learned the merchant spent all day recounting the sacks, searching for the mysterious sack of 'corn'. He never found it because as soon as it was dark, Tom 15 crept out of the sack happily and vanished into the night.
