Section C (8 marks) Comprehension

Read the passage below and answer questions 17 to 23 based on the passage.

Many people take part in sports regularly because of its many benefits. Sports helps us stay fit and healthy and can make us feel good about ourselves.

Sports can be a lot of fun. However, it is important to play safely and keep your body healthy. Before exercising, always take time to warm up. This gets your body ready for the activity ahead. You can go for a light jog or do a few stretches. Stretching will loosen your muscles which prevents injury. 5

You should also wear safety gear whenever possible. Some examples are helmets, knee pads and the correct shoes. It is important to ensure that what you are wearing fits you properly. Clothing that does not fit well can affect movement and you may hurt yourself. 10

The body needs water to stay healthy. When you sweat during a physical activity, your body loses water. That is why it is good to keep a water bottle close by while you are playing sports. Take regular breaks and drink lots of water! You should drink water before, during and after exercising. If you do not drink enough water, you may feel dizzy. 15

Most importantly, if you are injured or unwell, stop playing. Tell your parents or coach immediately so that you can seek treatment.

Section G (10 marks) Comprehension

Read the passage below and answer questions

Mandy liked nothing better than to spend time with Grandpa. It was her favourite pastime. He was always making something and she truly enjoyed watching him and helping him finish whatever he was making.

"Grandpa, what are we building in your workshop today?" Mandy asked, looking curiously at the two walking sticks Grandpa was working on. 5

"Tomorrow, we're going on a hike and these will help make walking on the trails easier for the both of us." That got Mandy excited.

The next morning before sunrise, she was up, dressed, and ready to go. When she padded into the kitchen, she was surprised to see Grandpa busy packing sandwiches, biscuits, water and some bananas and apples into their backpacks. "That is a lot of food, Grandpa!" exclaimed Mandy. 10

"That's because we are going to be hiking for the whole day!" Grandpa said with a chuckle.

After a long drive, they arrived at the nature reserve. Holding a walking stick each, Mandy and Grandpa began their leisure walk along the trail. Mandy asked many questions about the insects, flora and fauna they saw. Grandpa answered them all patiently and emphasised the importance of staying on the designated trails. Venturing off track would risk disturbing the flora and fauna there. Just then, Mandy dropped her plastic bottle. However, she did not pick it up. 20

Pointing to a sign that read, 'Do not litter', Grandpa said, "We must treat our surroundings with respect. The nature reserve should be kept clean for others to appreciate its beauty." Nodding in agreement, Mandy bent down to retrieve it and kept that in mind.

36. We can infer that Mandy was curious about nature. Cite one example in the story to support this. [1m]
